

2009-2010 Theatre Season

Mainstage Series

November 4-7

The Idiots Karamozov by Christopher Durang and Albert Innaurato

A hare-brained scholar attempts to translate a great Russian novel causing the characters to come to life and wreak havoc.
(Comedy)

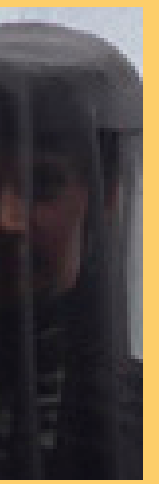

Student Series

December 4 & 5

Woman in Black

Adapted by Stephen Mallatratt
from the book by Susan Hill

A Senior Theatre Performance by Riley Thompson
Considered one of the most frightening ghost tales ever to be adapted for the stage, a haunting play of malicious revenge from beyond the grave. In this all-female rendition, audience members will be on the edge of their seats as the tale unfolds.
(Mystery)

March 24-27

The Spitfire Grill music, book and Lyrics

by James Valcq and Fred Alley
Co-produced by WJC Music and Theatre

Things are definitely cookin' at the Spitfire Grill as a parolee finds herself working at this only eatery in a small Wisconsin town. Join us for this critically acclaimed musical with "soulful" country flavored tunes and lyrics.
(Musical)

January 29 & 30

The Glass Menagerie

by Tennessee Williams

A Senior Theatre Performance by Brian Gehrlein
An autobiographical drama about innocence lost, family dynamics and the consequences of escapism under the umbrella of a dissolving socioeconomic climate.
(Drama)

Get Your Tickets Today!

Mainstage Series tickets are $6 for Adults or
$5 for students with a valid ID card.

Student Series tickets are always $5.00.
For reservations call our box office at 816 415-7590
or email us at wjctheatre@william.jewell.edu

All performances begin promptly at 7:00 P.M. at Peters Theater in Brown Hall
Arrive early for best seat choices.

April 30 & May 1

The Subject Was Roses

by Frank Gilroy

A Senior Theatre Performance by Amanda Brasher
After always being considered a weakling by his father, Timmy hopes service in WWII to have proven himself. Instead, newfound habits that impress his father distress his mother and bring to the surface many underlying problems.
(Drama)

December 10 and May 6

The World of Theatre Showcase

Two evenings of improvisation, scenes, one act plays and ten minute play performances by the World of Theatre classes. A little something for everyone. One performance each semester.
(Free Admission)

