Additional Information: This position requires a high level of confidentiality. Attention to detail and accuracy in spelling and data entry are also important. Office experience is helpful. Students' work schedules are determined by working around class schedules – students work during regular office hours (no evenings or weekends except for possibly Commencement and Cardinal Days). Prefer to train students who would like to keep the same position over the course of their college career. Preference may be given to students who live close enough and are available to work during breaks, if possible (i.e., Fall and Spring breaks, Semester break in January, and Summer break—May through August).
